Introduction Travel Director

Your Travel Director is a highly trained professional and will enrich your travel experience with a wealth of expert knowledge. Departure times and a balance between driving and sightseeing can be agreed upon each day. In addition, advice on entertainment, restaurants, and more is readily available.

Your Travel Director will have all timings information and will discuss with you on trip.

Saturday · September 21st

Arrival Transfer from Dublin Airport

“Cead Mile Failte,” a hundred thousand welcomes! After clearing passport control, please claim your luggage to complete the arrival formalities. You will then exit through the Arrivals Hall, where your chauffeur will meet and escort you to the waiting vehicle.

Dublin City Walking Tour - Private

As a city, Dublin is 2,000 years old with stories spanning from the daring arrival of early settlers through to the struggle for independence during the last 100 years.

A local guide will take you through the heart of history, exploring Dublin on foot. With an emphasis on visiting areas less travelled, expect expert insight on parts of Dublin which are rarely experienced by the average walking tour.

EPIC The Irish Emigration Museum

The Chq Building, Custom House Quay, North Dock, Dublin 1

A storied history and famine strife saw upwards of 9 million people leave Ireland to form communities around the world. EPIC, The Irish Emigration Museum, brings these stories to life in a touching exploration of what it means to be Irish. Charting stories of poets, politicians, rebels, and rogues, EPIC won Europe's Leading Tourist Attraction at the World Travel Awards 2019. With 20 interactive galleries and breath-taking storytelling, EPIC will shed light on tales of triumph and adventure.

Kylemore Abbey

Set across a sprawling, spectacular estate, Kylemore Abbey is home to history and heritage. Take woodland and lakeshore walks and traverse the Victorian Walled Garden, all against the quiet grace of Connemara. Once you've explored the haven of Victorian horticulture, be sure to make the short walk to the gothic church by the mausoleum, where former owners Mitchell and Margaret Henry are buried. Experience mystic enchantment as you make a wish at the Giants 'Ironing stone'.

Clifden

Visit the coastal town of Clifden also known as the 'Capital of Connemara' in Co. Galway. It is located at the foothills of the Twelve Bens and the Atlantic Ocean and offers a perfect stop with lots of lively bars and restaurants in what is a very picturesque setting.
